WHITE SOX AND CUBS AGAIN LOCKED IN TIE

Twelve Innings of Fierce Play to mark the revival of the sport under End With Each Scoring Three Runs.

E NO DECISIVE GAME YET

twelve innings before it was called on track. , plonship of Chicago and both have been arrangements have been made for transties, with the result that while the series portation between the station and the was scheduled to start on Tuesday not a decisive game has been played.

Catcher Easterly and Recruit Johnson fu were the heroes of to-day's game. The catcher in four trips to the plate drove out as many hits, including a double. In the ninth, with the score 3 to 1 in favor S of the Cubs. Johnson drove out a triple with a man on base and scored an instant later on Easterly's fourth safe

Chancy went the dlistance for the Cubs. | while Cicotte started and Walsh finished for the White Sox. Cleotic went nine rounds and Walsh three. Weaver and Lord collided in going after Ward Miller's Texas teaguer in the cighth and both were knocked unconscious. Lord rescovered quickly and was supported from the covered quickly and was supported from the following was supported frow was supported from the following was supported from the follow the field. Weaver was carried off and lay unconscious for more than an hour after reaching the clubhouse. He finally re-reovered and will be in to-morrow's game. Incidentally the collision paved the way for the two Cub runs as Miller reached third because there was no one to get the ball and the Cubs then began to hit.

Early Break.

Yale officially deserted the Intercol-legiate Basketball League at a meeting of that body held at the Hotel Imperial last night. The reason given was a general shakeup of minor sports for the Elis. Last year the Yale team finished next to the last in the league race. Yale will continue to play basketball, but will not enter the league Only five colleges now compose the league, Pennsylvania, Cornell, Columbia, Princeton and Dartmouth, Dartmouth was admitted to full membership and given a place on the executive committee. R. B. Hyatt of Yale resigned as president and Dr. J. E. Raycroft of Princeton was elected to fill his place. The other members chosen to the executive committee are C. W. Cuthel, Columbia; Prof. C. V. B. Verre, Corell. B. Morras Pearst

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 11.—The world's record for trotters to a pole of 2:07% suffered a severe stroke here this afternoon when C. K. G. Billings sent his two famous trotters, Unlan, 1:58, and Lewis Forest, 2:06%, out to beat the mark. Going away on the first score this pair went the mile in 2:03%, the first quarter in 31%. The feature race of the day was the pacing division of the Kentucky Futuriy, which brought out a field of six. Anna Axe ruled favorite. She made a bad break in the first heat and finished fourth.
